Miss Elizabeth Robbins

AIR MINDED

Elizabeth Robbins, of 43 Harlow street, returned home after a glamorous 18,000-mile trip by air recently with the comment: "Arlington still looks pretty good to me!" Not that attractive Miss Robbins doesn't like to travel—she loves it. But, she likes coming home, too, as everyone usually does. The trip that she took had all the aspects of a movie scenario, as she traveled to Mexico, Central America, Peru, Chile and then to Buenos Aires. On her return trip she visited Uruguay, Brazil, Venezuela and the West Indian Islands. The colorful trip, native scenes, fascinating people and parties, plus souvenirs that include a palm full of lovely amethysts and aquamarines, must make the snow and cold of her home town a sharp contrast.

This air-minded young lady who is definitely convinced that "there is no other way to travel", is appropriately employed by the Pan American World Airways. Her marvelous trip was the prize in a sales suggestion contest sponsored by her employers. Open to all Pan-Am employees in the United States, of the 12 prize winners, she was the only girl. It is easy to imagine the thrill she got when notified that she was the winner of a 30-day luxury air trip, the total value of which was around $4,000. It was the opportunity of a lifetime and Elizabeth made the most of it. She left Boston on November seventh and started her trip for such faraway and famous spots as Copacabana Beach in Rio, the performance of the Russian Ballet in Montevideo, and the truly out-of-this-world splendor of the lavish mountain hotel Quintandia and the Shrine of Guadalupe. Every minute was crammed with thrills and fun, and along the way, as one does with travel, Miss R. picked up quite a lot of educational information first-hand. She returned with a myriad of memories for a lifetime, plenty of photographs taken on the trip, and the urge to be off again when the chance may present itself. A point of particular interest to townspeople and the feminine readers especially is the wardrobe she took for the trip. With only a month to get prepared and to do Christmas shopping as well, she found that during her trip she would experience a complete change of seasons in the various countries, necessitating careful planning for the 55 pounds of luggage allowed on the plane. She accomplished this by buying her clothes right here in Arlington—mostly at Jayne's Dress Shop, and was delighted with the success of a suit and change of blouses was the mainstay of the fashions.

Each country was so different and there was so much to see, says Miss Robbins, that the trip passed all too quickly. Luckily, each night, no matter how excited or tired, she recorded the day's experiences in her diary for permanent reference. She is now engaged in preparing an article on her trip for a travel magazine. She has done some travelling before—has lived in Hollywood, where she was employed by Technicolor Motion Pictures Corporation. Truly a modern Miss, she flew to California on her vacation, spent the weekend, then returned—just like that!

Elizabeth was born in Cambridge and educated there and has lived in Arlington for about eight years with her widowed mother and a sister. Mrs. Robbins was nervous at first about her daughter's preference for the airways, but now she is in complete accord. Elizabeth was with the Army Air Force Technical Service Command in Boston during the war as an expediter. Other hobbies are skiing and photography, but her suitcases (airplane luggage, of course) are always ready for a trip. Next stop (she hopes) will be sunny Bermuda.

An important meeting, followed by an interesting speaker, was the program of the Menotomy Chapter, D.A.R., which met on Tuesday afternoon and filled the Robbins Junior Library Hall to capacity. Following the meeting, members and their guests, including representatives of all the youth organizations in Arlington, and many youth leaders and teachers, heard FBI agent John B. Grove speak on "Juvenile Delinquency". Mr. Grove stressed the responsibility that lies with the parents in stamping out this national problem, and the important part played by youth groups, schools and churches in moulding the lives of good citizens who know right from wrong. "If the problem is to be met and the picture completely cleared, it can only be met by the kind of cooperation demonstrated during the wartime years," said Agent Grove. He quoted J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as saying he has failed to see a Boy Scout becoming involved in crime, pointing out the need for youth activities and leaders. As far as this town is concerned, Mr. Grove said to say, "Arlington is very effective in the field of juvenile work. The force is doing a splendid job and is to be commended." He also discussed the effect of crime movies, radio programs and comic strips on the juvenile mind and behavior, recommending more strict authority on the part of parents and enlarged censorship controls in these fields. At the close of his talk he invited questions and there was open discussion from the floor. At the business meeting preceding the talk, many matters (Continued on Page 8)

Arlington Youth Council Completes Survey

The Arlington Youth Council recently completed a survey of the Arlington High School and Junior High School pupils to discover the recreational and educational interests of the students. Some 2,700 questionnaires were answered by pupils and they produced some very interesting studies that all youth organizations of the town should be interested in.

The Executive Board of the Youth Council held a meeting on Tuesday in the High School library to arrange a program to present this Fact Study to delegates of all the youth organizations of the town, at a meeting next Tuesday, January 27, at 7:45 p. m. at Robbins Library Hall.

All organizations interested in youth activities are urged to appoint delegates and have them present at this forthcoming meeting on January 27. The purpose of this meeting will be to discuss with the delegates ways and means to meet this youth activity demand that has been brought by the recently completed school survey.

Hard Fought Contests Loom In Local Elections For Leading Offices

Babson Tells Chamber of Commerce '48 to be Good Year for Business

Arthur Babson, vice-president of Babson Reports, Inc., was the main speaker of the evening at the dinner meeting of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce held on Tuesday evening, at Robbins Memorial Town Hall. His subject was "A Business Outlook for 1948", and as a noted authority on this subject his remarks held great interest for the gathering.

Mr. Babson looks to 1948 as a good year for business—a little behind 1947. He believes that a major depression is impossible because of the pent-up demand; the stimulation of seven million new families; the Taft-Hartley Bill; a Republican administration; and increased consumer income.

Among the statistics brought out in his talk the speaker said that the present wholesale price of eggs and butter now is three times the 1938 price; wheat, 4½ times; corn, 6 times. In stressing the need for a business-like attitude toward the foreign situation, as well as a humane one, he pointed out that the war damage abroad is appalling and said that he favors the Marshall Plan. "We cannot be an island of plenty in a sea of misery. Either we will be pulled down to their level or we must pull them up to ours," he said in concluding his views on the world situation.

Previous to hearing the speaker a fine dinner was enjoyed and (Continued on Page 5)

March of Dimes Mails 10,000 Banks To Local Residents

The Arlington 1948 March of Dimes Committee sponsored by the Arlington Auxiliary Police Association, Inc., completed the mailing of 10,000 banks to town residents this week. These are for contributions to the worthy fund, and William J. Sinclair, campaign chairman, again urges everyone to give as much as he can. The drive has only eight days more to go and Arlington's quota of $7500 must be met. A group of attractive members of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, Alpha Pi Chapter, will act as volunteer collectors in the theatres for the annual drive, as part of their contributions. The committee reminds residents once again that this year contributions may be mailed to or left at any of the banks in town.

Local Committee Formed To Plan Observance Of Brotherhood Week

National American Brotherhood Week, February 22 to 29, will be observed locally, the highlight of the week being a public meeting in the Town Hall on Thursday evening, February 26. The program arranged by the committee in charge will consist of speakers, music and community singing.

The initial local committee, composed of Rev. Robert M. Rice, chairman; David Govenar, James J. Golden, Jr., Arthur J. Mansfield, and Leonard Wood, will be greatly enlarged by representatives from the many civic groups in Arlington, and will be called the Arlington Brotherhood Week Committee.

Material help and experienced advice on commemorating this increasingly important annual event will come from the national Conference of Christians and Jews. The week-long observation climaxes a year-round program of building tolerance and understanding between racial and religious groups in the United States and the elimination of racial and religious prejudice.

The next meeting will attend to business matters, will be January 29th at 8:00 p. m. in the Hearing Room at the Town Hall. President Truman is honorary national chairman.

Friends of the Drama Members TO CELEBRATE 25th ANNIVERSARY

A Silver Anniversary will be celebrated on Friday, January 23rd, when The Arlington Friends of the Drama celebrate the completion of twenty-five years of activity in the town with a business meeting and entertainment at their clubhouse on Academy street. A short business meeting will precede the celebration, which will start promptly at eight o'clock, with President W. Parker Wood presiding.

A feature of the evening's festivities will be a presentation of the past-presidents of the organization, who will recall highlights in the club's early history, and trace its developments from the early days until the present, when the club stands unique among amateur dramatic organizations, boasting a large local membership and owning its own Little Theatre-Clubhouse. Many of the past presidents will be on hand to be introduced to the new members.

Comedy and Fantasy will be highlighted during the evening in the presentation of a one-act play, "Mr. F.", which has been directed by Edgar Emery. The (Continued on Page 8)

BABY SITTERS

Last night when you and the missus walked out of your house on the way to the movies or to an evening of bridge and left your two little children and practically all of your earthly possessions in full charge of that little girl who lives around the corner, had she been carefully briefed? Or could events have proved that she was okay for the job only if nothing of an emergency nature occurred?

Frequent news items record emergencies which arise with child sitters such as fire starting from overheated furnace, child falling from crib and breaking arm, long distance phone call announcing death of a relative—the list is endless.

When you make certain that your baby sitter has the following information, you go a long way according to the Safety Engineers of American Mutual Liability Insurance Company toward protecting your precious ones.

1. The phone number where you can be reached or
2. The name of a near neighbor, you know will be home.
3. How to call the Fire or Police Department.
4. What doctor to call should that be necessary, and his phone number.
5. That the door should not be opened to an unknown caller.
6. If you have a chain lock on your front door do you tell your baby sitter to fasten it as you leave?
7. Do you give her instruction respecting food, drink, diapers, etc.
8. Is pencil and paper available to record incoming phone calls?

So that your baby sitter and her substitutes may all have the same complete instruction and so that they may be able to refresh their memories when you have left, all this necessary information should be written down and left in a place for quick reference.

If all this is too much trouble, you place light value on the lives of your children.

HOPE FOR A TROUBLED WORLD

By REV. RICHARD T. BROEG

Minister of Arlington Heights Methodist Church

There are events stirring in the world today which must at times cause the thinking man to tremble. Naval vessels with contingents of Marines being sent to the Mediterranean; air fields being reopened in Africa; atomic war being predicted within five years; growing hostility and suspicion between great nations fighting ships of all types being reconditioned; enlargement of the air force, and so on and on—what does it mean? Whither does it lead? It seems unthinkable that nations could again be plunged into another blood bath so soon after the last one. The grass has hardly begun to grow over the graves of our precious war dead and can we even think of making other graves? These are some of the things which cause one to tremble for the future.

And then other thoughts come crowding into the mind which bring calm and confidence for the years ahead. Friendship trains loaded with supplies for the needy of Europe; Friend Ship with desperately needed supplies for Scotland; ERP; CARE packages; the heart of America touched by the cries of the destitute and the homeless. There are the great relief funds raised by the various denominations for the rehabilitation of distressed peoples, their homes and their churches. I believe that with these latter agencies lies the victory and not with the former: "Not by might, not by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord."

It is much wiser to spend billions in relief and reconstruction than billions in destruction and slaughter. The former will bring good will, understanding, peace and prosperity; the latter will cause the four horsemen, Conquest, War, Oppression and Death to ride again over the earth. God knows that of these we have had enough.

In the ministry of relief in the "good neighbor policy"; in putting forth every effort to demonstrate to the stricken people of the world that the heart of America is deeply stirred by their anguish, and will do all in its power to bring relief, in these is the hope of the world. This is the victory—even our faith that good-will will conquer evil; that relief afforded now will pay off in the long years that lie ahead: these will help rid the world of the cancer of fear and hate that is destroying its very life.

Ah, yes, surely there is light ahead. God has willed it; earth fulfills it.

*I saw the dawn march o'er the hills
With gallant step and strong;
He put the darkness all to flight,
And filled the world with song.*

*I saw God's truth shine bright and fair,
A beacon for mankind;
No child of His need e'er be lost,
Or fail the light to find.*

*And in my heart I felt God's love,
A mighty lifting tide;
I walked with joy along life's road,
With love as my true guide.*

*And all of life was full and sweet,
For peace was everywhere;
Because the Lord Christ came to earth
And saved men from despair.*

IN 1898

50 Years Ago This Week

Last evening Mr. T. L. Byrnes' dancing class had a pleasant informal assembly in Crescent Hall.

After several weeks of anticipation and preparation, the committee having in charge the 4th annual ball of the Police Relief Association have everything in readiness for the party on January 26. The funds are to be used in behalf of sick and disabled officers.

A little company of Arlington people went across to Winchester via the electric to see the Winchester Amateurs give the opera "Iolanthe". Among the party were noted Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin W. Moore, Mrs. C. H. Wharton, Mr. and Miss Parker, Mr. Minot Bridgman.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE

The program running Sunday through Tuesday at the University Theatre features Shirley Temple in "That Hagen Girl" adapted from the novel by Edith Roberts, an emotional social drama depicting the heartaches and misery that can come to a young girl through malicious and unfair gossip in a small town.

The companion feature, "Heaven Only Knows" starring Robert Cummings and a truly all star cast is highly imaginative in conception with the plot laid in the 1880's has many extraordinary twists combining fantasy and melodrama and presenting a good physiology of life and well seasoned humor.

The Wednesday review brings Victor McLaglen in "The Informer" and "These Three" with Joel McCrea, Merle Oberon and Miriam Hopkins. The fact that this is the seventh repeat at the University Theatre of the "Informer" should prove that this subject has always been an outstanding attraction.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday "Her Husband's Affairs" with Lucille Ball, Franchot Tone and Edward Everett Horton is a rollicking farce filled with whacky ideas and plenty of laughs.

The program is balanced by the companion feature "Out of the Past", an exciting mystery drama starring Robert Mitchum and Jane Greer.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffin To Live in Somerville
Miss Theresa Frances Harrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Harrington of 60 Cleveland street, became the bride of Donald E. Coffin of Somerville, on January 4, at St. Agnes church in an afternoon ceremony performed by Father Durocher. Her gown was of bridal white satin fashioned with long pointed sleeves, sweetheart neckline and a long train, and her finger-tip length veil of delicate lace was gathered to a crown of orange blossoms. She carried an unusual crescent shaped bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The matron of honor, Mrs. James F. Kenelson, the bride's sister, wore a blue velvet gown with matching hat, and her bouquet was a crescent of red roses. Organ selections by Dorothy Geary were played during the ceremony and the altar was arranged with seasonal flowers. The groom had as his attendants his brother, Arthur Coffin, as best man, and for ushers, Frank J. Harrington, James F. Kenelson, Richard Coffin and Thomas Cleveland. The bride was given in marriage by her father. A reception followed at the home of the bride's other sister, Mrs. James Reedy, 10 Russell street. Following a trip to New Hampshire, Mr. and Mrs. Coffin are making their home in Somerville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coffin.

After long questioning they finally broke down and admitted the two handbag thefts. The car used had been stolen in Watertown, the plates stolen in Cambridge. Police in both these communities want the pair. The next morning Somerville police identified Sefarian who had given a different name when arrested. The handbags of the young ladies will be returned intact except for a string of rosary beads which could not be located.

Children's Movies

At St. John's Hall
Believing that movies are very effective educational devices and that many movies currently shown in the theatres may be harmful to children, St. John's Court of the Order Sir Galahad, is sponsoring a series of Saturday morning movies in the Parish Hall. The shows are open to all children of Arlington for the small sum of twenty cents. The first showing this coming Saturday will feature Laurel & Hardy in "A Chump at Oxford". There is also a cartoon and a Mickey Maguire comedy. There are two more shows to follow on the Saturdays before Lent. If these shows continue their popularity they will be resumed after Easter.

Editor
Arlington Advocate
Arlington, Mass.
Dear Sir:
In the January 15th issue of your paper you headlined a story which you termed "A reliable rumor" concerning an alleged plan to abandon the Junior High Center school. You indicated that, according to this rumor the Planning Board was responsible for this plan. Please be advised that no such plan has ever been recommended, nor in fact has the matter even been discussed, by the Planning Board.

Very truly yours,
HARVEY C. ABBOTT
Chairman

(Ed. Note: Mr. Abbott's point is well taken. We did not clearly define which board. There are two—the regular Planning Board of which Mr. Abbott is chairman, and the Committee on Advanced Programming and Budgeting, on which are Warren A. Seavey, chairman, Henry E. Halpin, Harold C. Knight, Earle C. Hopkins, Elwyn E. Mariner, Hallam T. Ring. The matter of long range planning as to Junior High Center was "tabled" by the latter board.)

Fire Drives Out Two Osborne Road Families

A fire starting in the second floor bedroom of a house owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Loughlin, at 18 Osborne road, drove out two families last Tuesday morning on one of the coldest days yet recorded. Mrs. O'Loughlin and her five-year-old daughter, Ann Lenora, were forced into the street by the flames and smoke. Mrs. Clarence A. Noy, first floor occupant of the 2½-story house, also took flight. A neighbor removed Mrs. O'Loughlin to her nearby home where she was treated for hysteria by a doctor. At her request they notified her mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret K. O'Loughlin, of 39 Michael street, at work at the time the fire started. His wife went into the bedroom to get some clothes from a closet and discovered the blaze. Isabel M. Slack, who had made great headway. Considerable damage was done to the bedroom and entire furnishings being destroyed, but firemen were able to confine the damage to the one room. It is believed to have been started by a short circuit.

Medford Ice Men Beat Locals, 4-2

Mustangs Shove Red and Gray into Third Place Tie with Stoneham, Leary Stars.

Despite little Bill Leary's big scoring efforts, Eddie Burns' Arlington High sextet dropped their second straight game to a league leader as Medford pinned a 4-2 defeat on the locals last Saturday afternoon at the Garden.

This Saturday the ice scene will shift back to the arena for the final GBI set before the playoffs and Arlington will take on the big Orange from Newton in the first game at 1:00 o'clock. Against Medford last week, Bill Leary, the only holdover from last year's all-scholastic "dollar line" of Bill Walsh, Leary and Covey, put on a one-man skating and stick-handling exhibition that had the customers standing most of the game. However, Leary's performance netted him only a goal and an assist and wasn't enough to change the result. The powerful Mustangs, sharing the top spot in the GBI loop with Belmont, rammed home two goals in the first period and duplicated this feat in the second stanza to shove the locals deeper into third place tie with Stoneham, only one point ahead of Newton.

SCRAPING THE ICE

Leary's first goal came at the beginning of the second period on a beautiful solo. He picked up the puck after the face-off, circled the Medford defense and blazed his shot by Medford's goalie. Gerry King, Leary's partner, got the other Arlington marker at 8:50 of the second canto after taking a pass from Leary inside the Medford blue line. The Arlington offensive record is good, with twenty-three goals produced in the six games, as against Medford's top twenty-eight tallies. However, the defensive department isn't so hot, with the red lamp being lit at the Arlington end 14 times, as compared with Belmont's five. Rindge Tech furnished the upset of the year when they knocked off Newton, 2-1, in the opener for their one and only win of the last week and will face Arlington Saturday. If the locals lose this one to Newton they will suffer the ignominious fate of many champions—a trip into the second division—and just before the playoffs, too. This would automatically cost the Burnsmen any chance of repeating their 1947 Greater Boston Metropolitan and New England championship drives.

ARLINGTON GARDEN CLUB

At a meeting of the Garden Club, held Wednesday, January 14th in Robbins Library Hall, a sum of money was voted for seeds to be sent to countries in Europe. The movement is sponsored by the Federation of Garden Clubs; seeds to be distributed by the Church World Service. The business meeting was followed by a "Home Talent Program," which was in charge of Mrs. John Cox. The hobbies of the following members proved most entertaining and instructive: Miss Emma Ladd, Miss Gertrude Redmond, Mrs. Albert L. Cavalieri, Mrs. G. W. Anderson and Mrs. George E. Rogers.

Cub Scouts Annual Dinner

Nearly 150 Boy Scout Cubs, their parents and friends, gathered at an annual dinner last Friday night (January 16) at the Brackett School auditorium on Eastern avenue, marking the opening of their 12th year. Guests at the head table included former den mothers and scout officials: Sidney A. Bowditch of 159 Newport street, cubmaster, presided as master of ceremonies. The business meeting was followed by a "Home Talent Program," which was in charge of Mrs. John Cox. The hobbies of the following members proved most entertaining and instructive: Miss Emma Ladd, Miss Gertrude Redmond, Mrs. Albert L. Cavalieri, Mrs. G. W. Anderson and Mrs. George E. Rogers.

Town Talk

The Arlington Red Devils are holding another in their series of dances at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall on Saturday, January 24th. The music will be furnished by the popular John Albert and his orchestra. The dances are to raise funds for sweaters for the team. Four boys from Arlington visited with Nelson Bragg, also and the evening was a success. "Invitation to Studio A" on a recent broadcast, Jackie Connel and Earl Sitter, both of Wyman terrace, Warren Goss, of 22 Perkins street, and Bill McQuenny of 15 Perkins street, all enjoyed talking with Nelson about their home town.

Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. Robert M. Jones of Norfolk road observed her ninetieth birthday on Sunday, January 18, and the occasion was celebrated on Saturday evening with a small informal party of friends and relatives. Four generations were represented by Mrs. Jones, her daughter, Mrs. Charles Bisbing, her granddaughter, Mrs. Helen Lauriat Lyman, and her great-granddaughter, Helen Elizabeth Lyman.

The first appropriation for the purpose of a nine o'clock curfew was made here in 1837, and the bell rang through the years until the last town meeting in 1906 again voted against making an appropriation for the purpose.

Hockey Club Wins, 6-4

The Arlington Hockey Club notched another victory last Monday night at the Boston Skating Club, racking up a 6-4 win over Stoneham in a Boston Amateur Hockey League contest.

The first period was all Arlington as Fernberg opened the scoring and Doherty added two for the Menotomy Towners. In the second period Kineavy converted a Donovan pass to make it 4-0 while the Stonehamites couldn't find the net. At the 11 minute mark in the second canto, however, W. Cogan scored for Stoneham and Jordan added another a few minutes later. The two-goal lead stood in good stead as the third period saw each team adding two goals. Felino and Kineavy flashed the light for the locals while Manuel and Livingstone notched the Stoneham markers.

The Arlington club will meet an on-off North Cambridge sextet in the third game of next week's BAHF card at the Skating Club, Soldiers Field Road, Brighton, with face-off scheduled for about 10 p. m. The evening's other encounters will see Dedham attempt to stop league-leading Needham and Melrose will tackle Stoneham.

The beautiful organ music was played by Louis T. Phelps. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Mrs. Prentice Smith of Arlington as matron of honor, and Miss Barbara Leary and Miss Patricia Marden of Arlington as bridesmaids. Mr. Mudge's best man was Claude Cox of Topsfield, and the ushers were John Colburn of Belmont, George T. Armstrong, Jr., of Greenwood, Herbert Moore, Jr., of Cambridge, and Hugh Ripper of Weston.

The bride wore a period gown of ivory Skinner satin with fitted bodice and train, and a chapel veil caught to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade of Eucharis lilies, stephanotis, white lilacs and sweet peas. Her attendants wore American beauty with old-fashioned matching lace bonnets and carried old-fashioned bouquets. The bride's mother was gowned in a powder-blue crepe bustle-back dinner suit, and wore a corsage of violets and sweetheart roses while the mother of the groom was dressed in a gray faille dinner gown, with a corsage of violets.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Parish Hall, which was beautifully decorated with smilax, white snapdragons and white tails. The wedding party received in front of the hall.

Barker, with Miss Isabel Grafto, chamber secretary, assisting. Among the business matters referred to the Board were the Wednesday closing of local stores, and the post-office cancellation of Arlington mail. At present, it was brought out, the town mail is stamped "Somerville" and Arlington receives no good-will advertising benefits from this method. Testimonial cancellations really do have advertising value and the Chamber would like to see the town benefit from it.

Several new members were admitted to membership. They are: J. S. Garret, 731 Massachusetts avenue; Frans O. Mattson, 362 Massachusetts avenue; William J. Holland, 745 Massachusetts avenue; B. Harold Rogers, 717 Massachusetts avenue; Berkeley Cue; Freddie's Doughnuts (William and Richard N. Tabler) and Adler M. Hanson, Hanson and Tilton.

An announcement was made of a Regional Meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce to be held in Medford on February 4, at 6:30. The topic of the evening will be "The Relation Between Business and Government." Tickets for this meeting may be obtained from Ira Jones of the Arlington Chamber.

During the business session several candidates for town office were recognized from the floor and asked to stand. There were several guests of honor at the meeting. They were: Gordon Seavey, president of the Belmont Board of Trade, and publisher of The Belmont Citizen; Robert Duncan, president of the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce and of the Harvard Trust Company; Frank Townsend, executive secretary of the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce; Bert Welbourne, national affairs advisor of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Arthur Mansfield, president of the Arlington Woman's Club; Thomas Bultzer, president, Somerville Chamber; Samuel Parker, president of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Parker; Melvin Coombes, executive secretary of the Medford Chamber of Commerce.

Rev. Laurence L. Barber gave the prayer for the evening, and William C. Adams, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, tendered the official greetings of the town to the meeting. Timothy Good, Jr., and Harold Magnuson were named trustees of the Arlington Chamber.

The whole evening promises to be one of good fun and enjoyment.

Mrs. Fiske proceeded to introduce Miss Hersum who gave a most enlightening and informative review of her recent trip out West and through parts of Canada. She very ably transported her audience from one locality to another, with the assistance of pictures and scrapbook items. Going by plane from Boston to Chicago, Miss Hersum began her trip from that point, travelling with an escorted tour by pullman, viewing points of interest enroute in: Colorado Springs, New Mexico, the Grand Canyon, Mexico, California, Oregon and Washington. Entering Canada, the trip continued where the grandeur and beauty of the Canadian Rockies, Banff and Lake Louise were enjoyed. Finally, back to the States and Chicago—hence to Boston.

Arlingtonians who left for the South recently are experiencing some unusually cold weather. Among these vacationers are Mr. and Mrs. M. Ernest Moore, Mrs. Harold Frost and Miss Evelyn Frost. As has been their custom for several years, they are located in Orlando, Florida.

ALPHA PI CHAPTER NOTES

The first meeting of the New Year of Alpha Pi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, was held at the home of Miss Dorothy Bergstrom, vice president, recently. Plans for the ensuing year were discussed and Miss Marcia Donaldson was appointed as the chairman of the Service Committee.

The entire Chapter voted to take as their Service work for the year "Infantile Paralysis." Accordingly, they have offered their services to the local committee to assist in whatever way they can to help make the 1948 campaign a success. The members have been notified that they have been chosen to act as collectors in local theatres during the drive. The next meeting was held at the home of the Director, Miss Bernice H. Holmes, at 88 Paul Revere road, on Tuesday evening, January 20th, and further plans for the Valentine Dance, to be held at the Commander Hotel, Cambridge, will be discussed.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

The annual meeting of the Arlington Social Service League will be held at 3 o'clock Friday, January 30th, in the Robbins Library Hall. Reports of the year's work will be given. The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Galleran, American Legion Auxiliary Post president, was a member of the glee club, and orchestra at Arlington High in 1946. Daughter of Mrs. Joseph Galleran, 118 Lowell street, she is co-chairman of the advertising committee of the 1948 Mt. Ida yearbook. She is a member of the swimming and horse-back riding clubs.

Miss Pacifici, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pacifici, 21 Lansdowne road, who was active in sports at Arlington in 1946, was captain of the Mt. Ida baseball team last year. Mrs. Marvin O. Campbell, president; Mrs. Benjamin F. Hickey, first vice-president; Mrs. Roberta Bailey Norris, second vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Birch, recording secretary; Mrs. Edwin A. Barnard, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frederick W. Hill, treasurer. Directors—Mrs. Walter R. Boone, Mrs. George S. Donahoe, Mrs. James W. Kidder, Miss Edith Winn, Mrs. M. Norcross Stratton, Mrs. Paul A. Smith, Mrs. J. Harmon Spiers, Mrs. Frank G. Parker, Mrs. Z. J. Kord, Mrs. Ross Chapin, Mrs. Leonard Bradford, Mrs. Lawrence R. Eaton, Mrs. Hallam T. Miss Caroline A. Fandel, supervisor of Nurses, submitted her annual report which contained most enlightening information of the work done by the nursing staff. One can picture the hardships the nurses have endured going about every day in the blizzards and snowdrifts to give care to the many sick and aged patients in Arlington.

The number of visits made by the nurses during the year was 8,308.

The nursing staff consists of Miss Caroline A. Fandel, supervisor, Miss Ethel M. Fisher, Miss Mary A. Heffernan, Miss Agnes M. McGowan and Mrs. Leland Estes. They are all registered nurses. The secretary is Mrs. Leland Estes.

The guest speaker of the afternoon was Miss Elizabeth E. Barry, director of the Cambridge Visiting Nursing Association. Her subject was "Public Health Nursing Today and in the Future." The speaker pointed out in her remarks that there are necessary changes from day to day to meet changing conditions.

Public health nurses and the board have a social responsibility working with the medical profession as well as for them. Public health nursing is a dynamic health force which operates regardless of color, race or creed.

A social tea was enjoyed at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Edwin A. Barnard and Mrs. Howard Ensor were the hostesses, and Mrs. Frederick W. Hill poured.

Mr. and Mrs. McGrail

At Home after Trip

Following a picturesque holiday wedding in December, Mr. and Mrs. William J. McGrail, Jr., are at home at 54 Irving street after a wedding trip to Xmas Tree Inn, Bridgeton, Maine.

The bride, the former Lorraine G. Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Pierce, of 43 Davis avenue, chose traditional white satin for her bridal gown, made with a full train. Her veil was waist-length and fell from a coronet of white satin roses and white orchids. The bride carried a cascade of white gladioli, centered with red roses and a white orchid. The maid of honor, Miss Joan T. Gunning, 19 Orchard terrace, wore fuchsia faille made with fitted bodice and short sleeves and very full skirt. She wore a coronet of white carnations and her cascade bouquet was also of white carnations, tied in silver. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Nancy Pierce, sister of the bride, wore a ballerina gown of light green faille with short puff sleeves, and a coronet of red roses and white carnations. She carried a Colonial bouquet.

The altar at St. Agnes' church, where Fr. John J. Keane performed the late afternoon ceremony, was beautifully arranged with poinsettia and laurel. Music was provided by Theresa Millett. The best man was Robert D. McGrail, brother of the groom. Ushers were Gerald F. O'Neill of Malden and William T. Carey of Winchester. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Following a reception held at the Music Box, Copley Square Hotel, the couple left on their honeymoon. Mrs. McGrail is a graduate of Arlington High School, class of 1944, and is a senior at Lasell Junior College in Auburndale. The groom graduated from Winchester High School in 1944 and served with the U. S. Marine Corps in China for nearly two years. He is now studying engineering at Tufts. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McGrail of Winchester.
